Consider signing up for this important ministry opportunity in the vestibule. If you have any questions, please call Joann Murphy: 688-7250.

COMPASSION MINISTRY

Do you know of a parishioner who is sick or homebound and would like to receive communion once a week? If so, please call Fr. Anthony Lajato: 688-3427, x203 to arrange for a Compassion Minister to visit and bring communion. Sometimes your call is the only way we find out that a parishioner needs help. We would also like to support families who are waiting with loved ones in the hospital. Call us to come and sit with you; do not wait alone.

It is cool inside; we have 'prayer' conditioning.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION CHAPEL

"When later he [St. Joseph] carried the Child in his arms, acts of loving faith welled up constantly in his heart. It was a worship that pleased our Lord more than that which he receives in heaven. Picture to yourself Saint Joseph, adoring the little Child in his arms as his God. He tells of his readiness to die for Christ, of all his plans to promote Christ's glory, and to win more souls to his love. No lover builds more scintillating plans for his loved one than a saint." - St. Peter Julian Eymard

Around this fathers Day, worship our Savior as his earthly father did. Come to our Adoration Chapel. Stop by anytime or to volunteer for a regular hour, contact: Barb Koepple 688-1844, Jeanine Best 682-1207, Joan Kirchgessner 682-2720, or Lisa & Jerry Sanderson 282-0840. Every afternoon at 3PM we recite the Divine Mercy Chaplet. Please join us.

CORPUS CHRISTI AT THE MOTHERHOUSE

Come and join us next weekend, June 26 at 2PM on the grounds of our Motherhouse, 1175 St. Francis Lane, East Peoria to give public witness to your faith in, and love for Christ's presence among us. This annual event includes hymns, Scripture, prayer and Benediction. Light refreshments follow. Everyone is welcome.

PARISH DIRECTORY COMING SOON

We are in the process of updating our annual directory. This book is the who, what, when, where and how of our parish. The book is provided at no cost to our Church, including the mailing to each family, and is being subsidized by the local businesses that advertise in it. If you own or manage a business, or know someone who does, consider advertising in the book. Call the parish office for information: 688-3427 x202. Recent results by our publisher show that 92% of families would rather patronize a Guide Book advertiser over a non-advertiser. So, it "will pay" to advertise in our directory.

LITURGICAL REFORM PROGRAM

Msgr. Jason Gray will speak on Wednesday, June 22 at 7PM in the St. Vincent dePaul Parish Center. He will speak on the Sacrosanctum Concilium, which is the document from the Second Vatican Council that called for liturgical reform. As we prepare to implement the new translation of the missal at Mass this fall, this is a great opportunity to come and learn about the Church's teaching on the Mass and liturgy.

CATHOLIC WOMEN'S LEAGUE ROSARY

Join us at St. Philomena at 9AM tomorrow, June 20 for our monthly rosary. You are most welcome.

Dear Holy Family,
 As many of you already know, our Franciscan community suffered a loss that has forced us to reconfigure some of our province assignments sooner than originally planned. Consequently, I have been assigned to the National Shrine of St. Maximilian Kolbe / Marytown in Libertyville, IL. I will be assisting the friars there in the sacramental ministry, the promotion of St. Maximilian Kolbe’s mission of total consecration to Mary Immaculate, and will be continuing on with higher studies in Sacred Theology.

Many of you have expressed your surprise and puzzlement at the brevity of my stay here at Holy Family. I must admit that I too initially shared your sentiments, but on the other hand have learned that as Franciscan friars, we have to expect the unexpected. We are itinerants after all!

We are reassured by the fact that Jesus Christ is the true pastor (and parochial vicar) of his faithful people. We are only to be attentive and obedient to the movements of His Holy Spirit and trust that He knows what He is about. I give thanks and praise for all the hidden wonders I have seen Him bringing about in this parish. And for making me the (poor) instrument of his grace and mercy.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to the Friars, Staff and people of Holy Family: for all the prayers, encouragement and kind affirmation you have given me throughout my time here. I could not have asked for a better beginning to my priestly ministry. You will remain fondly in my prayers and intentions; I ask that you please remember me in yours.

May the God of peace, who brought up from the dead the great shepherd of the sheep, Jesus our Lord, by the blood of the eternal covenant, furnish you with all that is good, that you may do his will. May he accomplish in you all that is pleasing to him through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

Yours in the hearts of Jesus, Mary and Joseph,

Happy Fathers Day!

Peace I leave with you;
my peace I give to you. (Jn 14:27)

June 9, 2011

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

In many places around the globe, the Church struggles to be a visible sign of Christ's peace: in poor dioceses where many depend on the Church for social and pastoral support; in regions where Catholics are persecuted and must be helped discreetly; in nations overloaded with refugees or victims of war and natural disasters.

The Peter's Pence Collection gives us the opportunity to extend a sign of peace to the Body of Christ around the world. Our gifts to this annual Collection help the Holy Father to support victims of disaster, war, and oppression and others most in need of assistance. Pope Benedict uses the Peter's Pence Collection to strengthen dioceses, religious orders, and struggling communities of faith when they need it most. Please give generously to the Collection, and help cast the peace of Christ upon the world. For more information, please visit www.usccb.org/nationalcollections.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Daniel R. Jenky, C.S.C.

Envelopes for this collection are in your monthly packet; there are extras at the back of church. The collection is next weekend.

FAITH FACTS

THE APOSTLE ANDREW

The apostle Andrew was the brother of Simon Peter. Like the other apostles, Andrew eventually went out from Palestine to evangelize the world. He seems to have preached in Greece and in areas to the north and east of Greece.

It seems certain that he was crucified by the Romans at a town called Patrae in southern Greece. He was not nailed to the cross but bound, in order to increase his sufferings.

It is often thought that he died on the form of cross shown in the picture, but there is no hard evidence for this.

He died on November 30th, A.D. 60.

FAMILY LIFE:

TO WALK AS ONE

On a beautiful Saturday in May, I sat at a table in the park, reading term papers and enjoying the sights and sounds of spring. My favorite sound is that of little children laughing and squealing as mom and dad play games with them, or throw a ball or sit and eat a picnic lunch. It's the perfect image of family. Love is in the air, infusing the mind and spirit with a sense of peace and joy. There is something about a toddler's laugh that makes you smile with hope and happiness.

Angels and perhaps theologians can best explain the mystery of the Trinity, but we all experience the power of God. In every breath, we acknowledge the creative power of the Father; in every good deed, we see the redeeming glory of the Son; in every prayer, we are inspired by the sanctifying Spirit. Faith is an intimate relationship with God and He gives us all that we need to become His people, His ministers, and His church.

The Church describes the family as a domestic church.

In it, we learn the ways of God, the story of salvation, and the virtues of faith, hope and love. We do not learn our lessons from a book, but from each other; not just from words, but from deeds; not just from explanations, but from example. Like a spring day, faith can infuse us with love and hope so that we grow together, strong and faithful.

In Word & Deed

comes close. Infinite power, wisdom and love cannot be contained nor defined by the limits and constraints of the human mind. But the soul, the spark of the Divine within us, sees and understands. The soul recognizes the work of God and calls us to the mission that is written in our hearts by the waters of Baptism.

People spend a lot of time trying to figure God out. But God is not known nor understood by reason alone. God is known through acts of faith, hope and love. He is found in the poor and oppressed. He is seen in the eyes of those we love. He reveals Himself in quiet moments of reflection and prayer. We may not be able to explain the Father who creates, the Son who redeems and the Spirit who sanctifies. But we do enjoy their work.

-Jim Gaffney

“FOR GOD SO loved
THE WORLD THAT HE GAVE HIS ONLY SON,
SO THAT EVERYONE WHO BELIEVES IN HIM
MIGHT NOT PERISH
BUT MIGHT HAVE ETERNAL LIFE.”

JOHN 3:16
